

Middle School English /Language Arts Teacher – Long-Term Sub

A Long-Term Sub is needed to teach in the Cranbrook Kingswood Middle School for Girls from mid-September through mid-December, 2018. Duties include, but are not limited to, teaching four sections of seventh-grade English /Language Arts, study hall coverage, serving as an advisor, and a member of the eighth-grade team. Responsibilities also include assessing students' progress and writing student comment reports to parents, chaperoning student socials, chaperoning the week-long class trip, attendance at school assemblies, and faculty and team meetings. Minimum requirements: Bachelor's degree in English/Language Arts, required, with experience teaching adolescent girls, demonstrated creativity and innovation in the classroom strongly preferred.