

Teacher Assistant - Library and Literacy SupportSchools

The successful candidate will provide teaching and support in the Brookside Library and within the literacy support program at Brookside. He/She will serve as a teaching assistant to the Media Specialists and Literacy Specialists working with individual students or small groups of students to support library skills or emerging reading readiness preparation. Part time position working 27.5 hours per educational week following the existing academic calendar beginning on August 19, 2019. For consideration, please complete and submit a Faculty Application and personal vitae that includes a resume, copies of college transcripts, copies of any certifications and contact information for at least three references to: Cranbrook HR, P.O. Box 801, Bloomfield Hills, MI 48303, or fax (248) 645-3014, or email humanresources@cranbrook.edu. Our Faculty Application can be downloaded from the Employment page on our website at www.cranbrook.edu.